

EU-GIFT EXPLORER

June - July 2026

Contents

| STAFF WEEKS - BLENDED INTENSIVE PROGRAMMES

Staff weeks

Innovative Approaches to Services for Students and Staff at EU-GIFT Universities

Discover innovative practices, exchange institutional experiences, and strengthen international collaboration during this dynamic staff week hosted by Hochschule Geisenheim University, focusing on modern support services for students and university staff.

June 29th to July 3rd, 2026

MORE

Microcredentials at EU-GIFT Universities — From Implementation to Recognition

Join experts and colleagues from across the alliance to explore the development, implementation, and recognition of microcredentials in higher education, with a special focus on lifelong learning and international cooperation.

June 29th to July 3rd, 2026

MORE

Blended Intensive Programmes

Exploring Traditional Food and Wine Production and Local Heritage — Present and Future

Join students and professionals from across Europe in La Rioja for the EU-GIFT Summer School 2026, an inspiring international programme focused on sustainability, innovation, and collaborative learning in the fields of agriculture, food systems, and regional development.

June 15th to 26th, 2026

MORE

The Roots of the Past Are the Challenges of the Future. Climate Change and the Challenges of Grape-Wine Production

Explore the relationship between climate change, viticulture, and sustainable wine production through this international Blended Intensive Programme organised by Eszterházy Károly Catholic University, combining academic collaboration with practical perspectives on the future of grape and wine production.

July 6th to 10th, 2026

MORE

